Dear Colonel Jacob Marx,

Firstly, let me wish you a most enjoyable vacation. I hope you manage to catch a cross-eyed herring and maybe a whale.

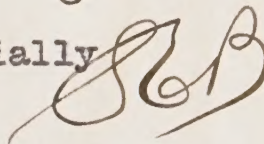

A friend of mine has a batch of old coins and wishes, both to establish their value and sell ~~him~~ them. It occurred to me that you may be able to help me get a line on what these coins are worth. Will you kindly add the information and return the letter to me in the enclosed envelope.

Mr. S. E. Bilik,

New York, N. Y.

Dear Doctor Bilik:

Your letter to Mr. Jacob Marx has been turned over to us as he thought we could answer your question better than he. Unfortunately none of your coins are rare and I very much doubt if you could get a premium on any of them. I am sure the United States coins are worth only face and the foreign coins are worth virtually nothing.

Very truly yours,

Curator
